Jamshedpur girl Shalu Munka has a bachelor's degree in business administration and managed to score a perfect score in the management aptitude test.

RANCHI: A 21-year-old student of Birla Institute of Technology in Lalpur here has got cent per cent marks in the management aptitude test (MAT) the results of which were announced recently.

Shalu Munka is from Jamshedpur and has a bachelor's degree in business administration.

She is now getting calls from many B-schools. "I have got calls from Centre for Management Studies in Bengaluru and Christ University. But I plan to join TA Pai Management Institute (Karnataka)," said Munka who is hoping to specialize in human resource management.

She completed school education in Jamshedpur where her father runs a business. Her mother is a homemaker. MAT is a national level online exam conducted four times a year by All India Management Association (AIMA) for students seeking admission in top MBA colleges of the country. Shalu has scored 800 out of 800.

"I dedicate this result to my parents and teachers who inspired and guided me all the time," she said.

Gopalji, who is the director of Right Step management coaching institute where Munka took tuition too had scored 800 in MAT-2011. "I also secured 51 in GMAT in the same year," he said. He started coaching in 2013 after working for two years in merchant navy. "Teaching always excited me and I'm happy that my approach has been validated by the performance of my student," he said.
